

NOTICE TO PARENTS

As required by No Child Left Behind (NCLB), this is a notification from the Education Achievement Authority of Michigan to every parent of a student attending a Title I school that you have the right to request and receive information in a timely manner regarding the professional qualifications of your child's classroom teacher(s) and, if appropriate, paraprofessional staff. If requested, the information regarding the professional qualifications of your child's classroom teacher(s) shall include the following:

TITLE I – PARENTS' RIGHT TO KNOW

1. Whether the teacher has met State qualifications and licensing criteria for the grade levels and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction.
2. Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which State qualification or licensing criteria have been waived.
3. The baccalaureate degree major of the teacher and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher, and the field discipline of certification or degree.
4. Whether the child is provided services by paraprofessionals and, if so, their qualification.
5. Information of the level achievement of their on the required State academic assessments such as the MEAP Test etc.
6. A timely notice if the student is assigned to a teacher who is not "highly qualified" as required or if the student is taught for more than four (4) weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified.

All requests for this information shall be provided in an understandable and uniform format, and to the extent practicable, in language the parents can understand.
